I. Introduction and Purpose

From Antioch University’s Amended and Restated By-laws of Antioch University Board of Governors:

The University and its campuses, which for the purposes of these Bylaws shall mean to include its physical campuses and other facilities in various locations as well as all University-wide and cross-campus academic programs and services, shall be governed by a Board of Governors.

2.2 Members of the Corporation. The members of the Board of Governors shall constitute the membership of the Corporation under all circumstances where action of the membership is either desirable or required by law.

The authority of the Corporation shall be exercised by and under the direction of a Board of Governors whose members shall act as the Corporation’s “directors” as defined under Chapter 1702 of the Ohio Revised Code. The members of the Board of Governors are “trustees” and have the same fiduciary responsibilities and governing authority held by “trustees” or “directors” of other incorporated entities with educational and nonprofit missions similar to Antioch University.
